

REVIEW OF PHILOSOPHICAL THINKING: ROUSSEAU, KANT, HEGEL, ALTHUSSER

[title by M Hubbard 2025. Original title lost. Completed while Rick was banned]

A: ROUSSEAU AND THE PROBLEM OF REASON 1-36

- I. Introduction
- II. Reason and division
- III. Reason and cooperation: the social contract
- IV. The problem of reason

B: KANT: TIME AND THE KINGDOM OF ENDS 1-84

- I. Introduction
- II. Freedom, happiness and virtue
- III. Sensible vs Unintelligible [p 39 is very feint]
 - 1) Objectivity
 - 2) Subjectivity
 - 3) Transcendental idealism
 1. Relations between objects
 2. Knowledge of the subject
 3. Transcendental idealism and the problem of transcendental psychology
- IV. The intellectus archetypes:
 - a) Phenomenon and Noumenon
 - b) Judgement [p62 is partly illegible]
 - c) Critique of aesthetic judgement

Appendix—a note on the critique of judgement

Summary

UNDERSTANDING THE DIALECTIC IN KANT, HEGEL, MARX, ENGELS, LENIN AND SARTRE [title constructed by M Hubbard. Original title page lost] 1-92

Kant and empiricism 3-25

Kant and Hegel 26-45

Marx, Engels, Lenin and the dialectics of nature [in relation to Hegel] 46-62

Sartre's materialist dialectic 63-92

ALTHUSSER: REFLECTIONS ON AN UNCRITICAL SELF-CRITIC

Introduction 1-2

I. Science, philosophy and ideology 3-26

II. Structure and subject 26-45

III. Structure and contradiction 45-58

IV. Sartre and Althusser 58-63

Bibliography